FOREWORD

UNIVERSITY CHURCH

This has been a successful and very wonderful year for the students of Shaw University. The 1962 senior class has worked very hard to keep the spirit and the traditions of Shaw University alive.

It is with this copy of THE BEAR that we have tried to capture a few of our most memorable moments during our four year stay here. Our goal is to present to you our readers a true-to-life picture of those things that we feel are true representatives of our beloved ninety-four year old institution.

May you the readers, in the years to come, reminisce with a smile the joys, pleasures, and thrills that your four years of training have given to you. If this is done, then the aim of THE BEAR has served its purpose.

UNIVERSITY SHIELD

LET'S GET IN THE WIND

Dear Readers,

We, your annual staff, hope you treasure these verbal and picturesque memories as much as we value the honor of being chosen to summarize and present to you, the student body, this souvenir of our school year 1961—62.

It may sound funny but I am quite happy that the 1961—62 Bear is finally taking its bow. We have as our goal to portray in a meaningful and most appealing manner our Alma Mater.

The combined decisions of many people made this year's production possible. Many required decisions were made through the guidance of Mrs. Cofield, Mrs. Newell and Mr. Cook, our yearbook advisors, whom I turned to for much assistance. Mr. Hinton, of Raleigh and Mr. Rivera, of Durham made possible the pictures, and the finished product was a result of the excellent work done by the American Yearbook Company, Hannibal, Missouri.

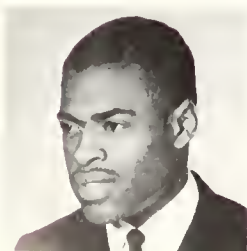

As editor, I wish to take this opportunity to thank my freshman, sophomore, junior and senior colleagues for their constant words of encouragement.

May this edition of the Shaw Bear serve as an incentive for each of you to strive zealously, courageously and intelligently until your highest ambition is reached.

Sincerely yours,

Luther Sawdy

Editor-in-Chief

WE DEDICATE OUR ANNUAL

To you Mother because you always served as our inspiration, because you always had the right word when we were low, because you had faith in us to the very end, because you could never let us down . . . To you Father, who constantly served as our strength, who gave your all at every opportunity, who never complained when times got hard, who always found us another way . . . To you both because you helped us attain our most cherished goal, because you are the greatest in the world, but most of all because we love you so much, we thank God for you and DEDICATE this our yearbook to you, our beloved parents.

OUR PRESIDENT SPEAKS . . .

DR. WILLIAM R. STRASSNER

During your college career you have been cloistered, protected, and guided in your quest for an education. You now enter into a world that will show you no favors, nor shield you from the dangers and difficulties that will clutter your pathway. Your success will depend upon your own equipment, and the world will richly reward you in proportion to the efficient service which you unselfishly render to your fellowmen.

CLASS HISTORY

September 11, 1958, marked the beginning of an adventurous and challenging journey for approximately 199 freshman students at Shaw University. Each bright-eyed individual possessed an ever increasing quest for learning. Our week of orientation was most enjoyable and enlightening.

It was not long before we were well-orientated into the Shaw Family, and soon we began to wonder if we knew anything about anything.

David Forbes was elected president of the freshman class. The first year moved very quickly. Christmas came, and we were all glad to get away for a while so that we could enjoy the holidays, while working on many assignments for our teachers.

In January 1959, we took our semester examinations. On the surface they did not appear to be hard but when the grades were posted they told a different story. Nevertheless, we continued our journey into the various fields of interests. Along with us we took such tools as determination, mental and physical vigor, decisiveness, and enthusiasm, as we were determined to be a success.

Many of us were outstanding that year. In the area of sports, we were well represented by Clavin McDowell, Charles Davis, Leslie Camm, Otis Clark, Hayzel Robinson, James Ballard, Otis Tucker, Martin Smith, Lawson Terrell, Leon Waddell, Charles Sparks, Earl Anderson, Samuel Raper, Jimmy Bassett, and Robert McCory. Cheerleaders were Norma Hardin and Cynthia Williams who constantly boosted the teams on to victory.

Our class contributed many melodious voices to the Chorale Society. Joining the Society were Jean Horne, Elisea Womble, Thelma Cowan, Annie Faison, James Ballard, Leslie Camm, Luther Dowdy, Johnny Jeffreys, Frances Mullins, Leroy Waters, Robert McCory and Otis Tucker. Many of our class members were "huddling over with joy" when they made the spring tour with the Chorale Society.

Our class was entertained with many actresses and actors. Surprisingly as it may seem many of them came directly from our freshman class. The new members of the Shaw Players were Pauline Watkins, Edward Mason, Jean Horne, Connie Blanks, James Ballard, Sheddric Barrow, and Vernon Smalls. Representing the class in the Shaw Players' major production, "Elizabeth The Queen," were Pauline Watkins, Vernon Smalls, Edward Mason, Sheddric Barrow, Jean Horne, Johnny Jeffreys, Louis Powell, and Walter Nobles.

The lovely, Bettie Ridley was Miss Freshman, and Yvonne Seawell Hicks and Bettie Holden Hudson were her attendants. The charming Ella Williams was chosen sweetheart of the Crescent Club.

Our class was gifted with several scholars. Bettie Ridley received all "A's." Other freshmen who were the recipients of scholarships and awards were Edward Mason, recipient of the Freshman Scholarship; Varnell Lewis who received the Home Economics Award; Ruby Pinchback recipient of the North Carolina Congress of Parents and Teachers Scholarship, and Doris Taylor who received the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Award.

During our Sophomore year, we felt like mature, sophisticated students. Each of us was determined to increase his or her self-discipline and to "buckle down." Studies had become harder and more time-consuming than in the first year. James Ballard was elected as president of our sophomore class. Frances Mullins, Ruby Pinchback, and Louis Powell were Student Council Representatives.

As a result of our ingenuity, we were still considered outstanding in the field of sports.

In the main production of the Shaw Players, "Our Town," talent was displayed by Thelma Cowan, Pauline Watkins, Connie Blanks, Johnny Jeffreys, Edward Mason, Alice Mitchell, Vernon Smalls, and David Forbes. Recipients of the Intercollegiate Drama Association Certificate for two years service with the Shaw Players were Edward Mason, Jean Horne, Pauline Watkins, and Vernon Smalls.

The charming, Varnell Lewis was chosen Miss Sophomore. Lois Lane was chosen Sweetheart of the Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity. The May Court was enchanted by the beauty of Yvonne Seawell as May Queen.

Some of the members of our class were successful in crossing into the land of Greekdom, a desire of almost every college man and woman.

Entering Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority were Jean Horne and Varnell Lewis. Delta Sigma Theta Sorority welcomed Frances Mullins, Gloria Nimmo, Pauline Watkins, Ernestine Moore, and Norma Hardin.

The new member of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority was Lois Lane.

Alpha Kappa Alpha welcomed into their ranks Barbara Smith, Priscilla Robinson, Bettie Ridley, Cynthia Williams, Georgia Exum, Bettie Holden Hudson, Yvonne Seawell Hicks, and Gloria Autry.

The three dogs who entered Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity were Luther Dowdy, Vernon Smalls, and Edward Mason.

Charles Davis, and Calvin McDowell entered the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity.

Entering the Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity were Louis Powell, Isaac Fox, Leroy Waters, James Ballard, and Leslie Camm.

Some of the members of our class made the Special Privileged Honor Roll during this year. Sophomore Awards were granted to James Ballard and Bettie Ridley. Louis Powell received a grant from Phi Lambda Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity. Bettie Ridley received the Dr. Nelson Harris Prize in Educational Psychology. The Dr. Wendell C. Sommerville Scholarship was granted to Edward Mason.

Under the leadership of Edward Mason, President of the Junior Class, the junior year proved to be an active one. Frances Mullins and Varnell were elected to represent our class in the Student Council.

Two juniors, Bettie Ridley and James Ballard were elected to Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society. Incidentally this is a national society. Yvonne Seawell Hicks, Bettie Ridley, Edward Mason, Leroy Waters, and Jean Horne held offices in the Student Council.

The Junior class was very proud to have a classmate chosen Miss Shaw University. This was in the person of Bettie Ridley. She was crowned Miss Shaw University for 1960-61. Another junior, Lois Lane, was an attendant.

Other queens chosen this year were: Lois Lane who was chosen as Miss Phi Beta Sigma; Yvonne Seawell, Miss Football, and Lillian Tillery, Miss Pan Hellenic Council. Alice Mitchell was chosen as Miss Junior and Miss Ella Williams and Miss Jean Horne were her attendants.

Members of the class who were selected to serve as Junior Counselors, were David Forbes, Bettie Ridley, Ernestine Moore, and Gloria Nimmo.

Edward Mason and Bettie Ridley were the two juniors selected to Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities.

Again our class was fortunate to possess recipients of several scholarships and awards. Elisea Womble the Emily Morgan Kelly Prize. Luther Dowdy was recipient of a Rockefeller Grant which can also be used in the graduate school that he chooses to attend. James Ballou was recipient of the "Trens Award." Bettie Ridley received a scholarship from the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority. Cynthia Williams was awarded the Dr. Benjamin Brawley Memorial Prize.

Pauline Watkins made a great hit in the Shaw Players' major production, "Come Back Little Sheba." Other class members participating in the production were Alice Mitchell and Johnny Jeffreys.

Our year was highlighted with our presentation of the Junior-Senior Prom, "Stairway to the Stars." This event was an affair to be remembered.

The role of leadership was then placed in the hands of the senior class with Edward Mason as president, Leslie Camm as vice-president, Ruby Pinchback as secretary, Leroy Waters as treasurer, and Luther Dowdy as editor-in-chief of the Shaw Bear.

The role of leadership was a great challenge, but one which had to be accepted in order to enhance the ideals and traditions of Shaw University.

Seniors steered the programs of many of the leading organizations. Highlighting the year was the coronation of Gloria Nimmo as Miss Shaw University for 1961-62 with Pauline Watkins and Lois Lane as her attendants.

Another outstanding event was the installation of David Forbes as the president of the student council and Edward Mason as vice president.

Cynthia Williams gained many compliments as editor-in-chief of the Shaw Journal.

Bettie Ridley, David Forbes, and Gloria Nimmo continued their work as Junior Counselors with Frances Mullins, Pauline Watkins, Leroy Waters, and Edward Mason as newly elected members.

Leslie Camm was elected president of the University Chorale Society with Elisea Womble, Doretha Williams, and Luther Dowdy captivating the hearts of music lovers across the country with their wonderful solos.

Congratulations go to Ruby Pinchback for her accomplishment of Superintendent of the University Sunday School.

This year marks the second year that Edward Mason has held the office as president of the Shaw Players. The major production, "The Silver Cord," gave Genell Todd an excellent opportunity to display her dramatic ability in the leading role.

"Hats off" to Jean Horne for her excellent work as president of the Women's Personnel Council for the second consecutive year.

Robert Morman did a wonderful job as president of the Student National Educational Association.

Cheers to Cynthia Williams and Norma Hardin as captain and co-captain of the Cheering Squad for two consecutive years as they led the teams to victory with Otis Clark (Mr. All American) and Hayzel Robinson as captains.

Many seniors became queens this year. Cozy Woods was chosen Miss Senior with Barbara Smith and Ruby Early as her attendants. Bettie Ridley was chosen Miss Alpha Phi Alpha. Pauline Watkins was chosen Miss Omega Psi Phi, and Thelma Cowan was chosen Miss S.N.E.A.

Seniors elected to Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities were David Forbes, Edward Mason, Pauline Watkins, Luther Dowdy, Gloria Nimmo, Bettie Ridley, Lonzie McKeithen, Leroy Waters, Cynthia Williams, and James Ballard.

We were inspired and elated by many interesting events and experiences during our four years. The pious fellowship and corporate cementation gave us impetus for our academic endeavors.

We smile, but this is a strange and wonderful time of the year. It is when we see garnet hoods, of weaving tassels, of windblown robes, it is a time of congratulations, accomplishments, endings, and beginnings.

But most of all it is a time of mixed emotions wherein the joy of our success competes with the sadness of our departure. The essential part of our lives lies ahead — we must go to meet it! We must each go alone. Our paths are varied ... but our purpose is one; our abilities are different ... our dedication is the same.

While our years at Shaw have not been perfect, they have been very rewarding. We can look back on our days here with laughter, admiration, sweat, and tears. As students, our history is over at Shaw, but as dedicated men and women it is just beginning.

It is with great appreciation and respect that we dedicate this page of our year-book to our advisors. Your constant faith in us, your continuous encouragement during our moments of decision, and the wonderful examples that you have set as faculty members is how we choose to remember you.

To the Members of the Shaw University Class of 1962:

On behalf of the Payne family, I express appreciation for the opportunity to extend greetings, congratulations, and best wishes to the members of the Class of 1962 as you approach the end of another cycle in your formal education and as you anticipate the next steps.

It is my desire that the years that you have spent at Shaw University have been most meaningful and rewarding. It is my belief that you have learned better both how to make a living and how to live. It is my hope that as sons and daughters of Shaw University you have made a part of yourselves the ideals and objectives of your Alma Mater.

As students now and graduates-to-be, you are members of the ever-growing Shaw University Family. As you go forth into your various areas of activity and service, it is expected that in words and deeds you will exhibit the competencies in character, training, and service which you have developed here. With you go the fondest and best wishes of the Shaw University Family.

CLASS POEM

Shaw University we leave thee now
We're grateful to thee; we shall never forget how
As fledglings we came uncertain to thee
But we lingered here, our minds became free
For knowledge we thirsted, learning our goal;
We opened our books, it commenced to unfold.
Our instructors were crutches upon which we leaned;
Our books — silent sages — that before us gleamed.
From the ugly duckling to the beautiful swan;
Through four years of striving the battle is won.
Now to greater learning our thoughts fly
And so, Alma Mater, we say good-bye.

Miss Bettie Hicks

CLASS SONG

Tune: My Happiness

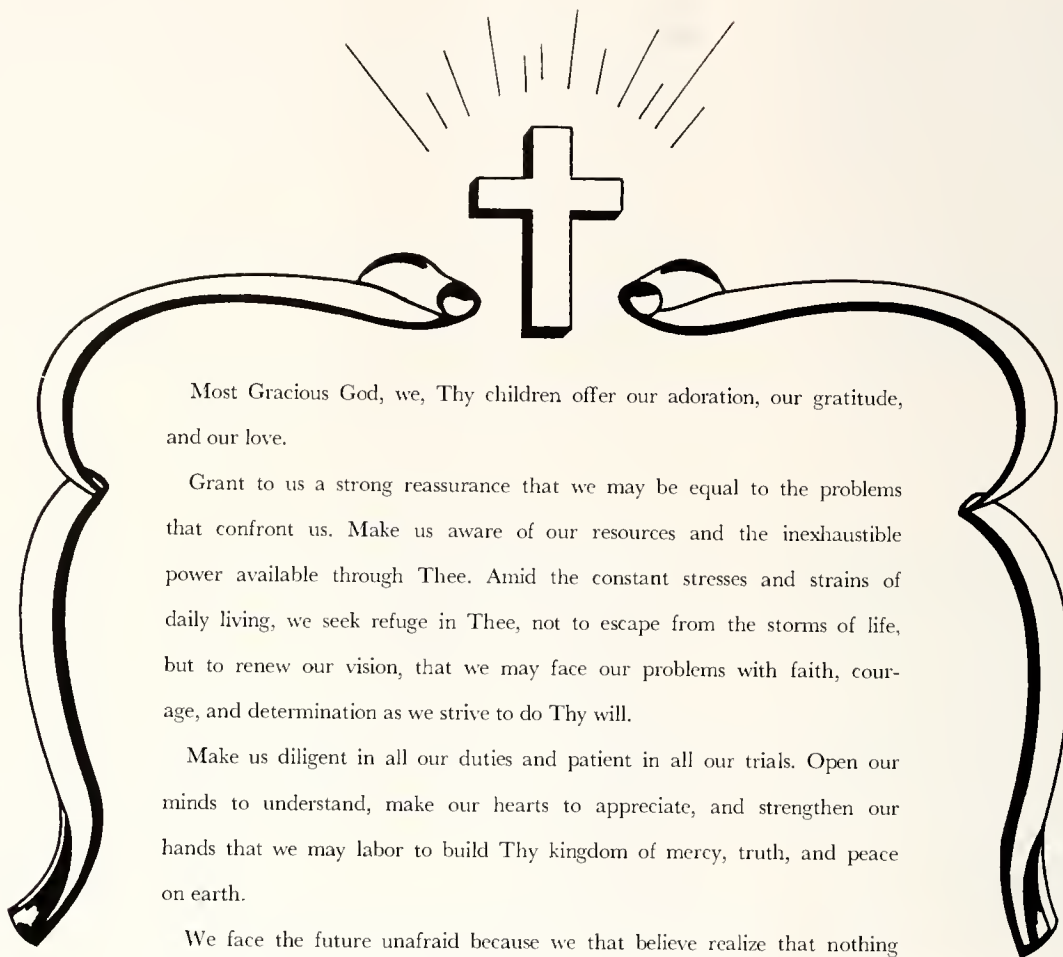

Now the time is drawing near
We must bid a sad farewell
But how can we forget you
Dear Ol' Shaw U
To our door you held the key
That opened our hearts and minds
We will hold those mem'ries true
Dear Ol' Shaw U

Chorus:
Those precious years it seems
Have fulfilled our hopes and our dreams
You taught us wrong from right
And you were our guiding light

Now that we must say so long
We will leave to one and all
Faith that has led us thus far
Dear Old Shaw U.
With our voices raised in song
We promise our best we'll do
So for now we bid adieu
Dear Ol' Shaw U.

Miss Lovie Howard

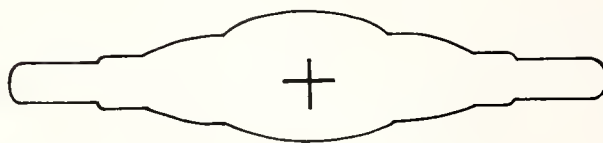

Most Gracious God, we, Thy children offer our adoration, our gratitude, and our love.

Grant to us a strong reassurance that we may be equal to the problems that confront us. Make us aware of our resources and the inexhaustible power available through Thee. Amid the constant stresses and strains of daily living, we seek refuge in Thee, not to escape from the storms of life, but to renew our vision, that we may face our problems with faith, courage, and determination as we strive to do Thy will.

Make us diligent in all our duties and patient in all our trials. Open our minds to understand, make our hearts to appreciate, and strengthen our hands that we may labor to build Thy kingdom of mercy, truth, and peace on earth.

We face the future unafraid because we that believe realize that nothing can separate us from the LOVE OF GOD. In His spirit we pray.

Pauline Watkins and Leroy Waters

WHO'S WHO'S is a directory designed to give national recognition to college seniors and juniors who have distinguished themselves and their schools through excellence in the academics and extra-classroom activities. This year (1961-62) the seniors selected by the faculty and student committee to represent our institution were STANDING, L. to R.: Dean Foster Payne, Advisor, Edward Mason, Betty Kidley, James Ballard, Pauline Watkins, Luther Dewly, Lonzie McKeithen. SEATED: David Forbes, Cynthia Williams, Gloria Nimmo, and Leroy Waters.

THE SHAW UNIVERSITY CHORALE SOCIETY

The Shaw University Chorale Society was founded in the fall of 1931. It is now recognized as one of the outstanding "symphonic" chorale organizations in the United States.

The group is in constant demand in its home city of Raleigh and each year makes numerous appearances at schools, churches and before local organizations. It is often featured over the local radio stations. Not only is the choir popular in this vicinity, but also throughout the State of North Carolina, the South, East and North. The Annual Spring program presented in the University auditorium is always attended by a more-than capacity audience. In recent years the choir has appeared in the following states: Connecticut, District of Columbia, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Virginia and West Virginia. As a result of its concerts, its broadcasts and appearances over the country, the Shaw University Chorale Society has become synonymous with chorale music of the highest quality. In performance, regardless of the variation of the repertoire, the choir continues to reflect trained perfections.

The original objective of the organization was to raise the criteria of chorale ensembles and chorale music. This idea has been strictly adhered to and carried out. Mr. Gil-Symthe has steadfastly refused to compromise in any manner concerning the artistic standards which he set for himself and his group.

STUDENT GOODWILL AMBASSADORS AT THE UNITED NATIONS

OUR STUDENT BODY PRESIDENT SPEAKS . . .

As this year draws to a close, I feel it in order to express my pleasure for having had the opportunity of serving as President of the Student Body. The problems, pleasures, sad moments, joys, defeats, triumphs, the academic and extra-curricular activities and lasting friendships have made this a rich and worthwhile year for me and hopefully for you, the Student Body.

To the graduating seniors I extend best wishes and hope for your success as you leave Shaw and enter various walks of life. To the remaining Shaw Bears, who are to take up the reigns of government next year, I leave best wishes for continued success in campus affairs.

Much success,

David Collins Forbes
President of Student Body

S T U D E N T C O U N C I L

The Student Council serves to further the activities of student life, promote a widespread interest in the student affairs, and to develop citizenship on Shaw's Campus. Functioning as the supreme instrument of government in regulating the affairs of all students on our campus, this system of government has been constantly changing, growing, and adapting itself to new circumstances which have arisen during the past years. Without this organization, the University would not be complete.

A L P H A K A P P A M U

The Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society, founded in 1937, is a national organization which aspires to promote high scholarship, encourage sincere and zealous endeavor in all fields of knowledge and service and to cultivate a high order of personal living. Members Miss Bettie J. Ridley, Mr. James A. Ballard. Adviser: Dean Foster Payne.

MEN'S PERSONNEL

The Men's Personnel Council is the representative spokesman for the male population on our campus. It has as its major aims: to create an atmosphere of good college fellowship among the fellows; to regulate matters of conduct on the part of the males, and to do whatever is within its power to develop good, wholesome, and well rounded men who will represent our institution in the best possible manner. President: Mr. James Dew; Adviser: Dean Charles Blalock.

WOMEN'S PERSONNEL

The major aim of the Women's Personnel Council is to direct, and suggest activities that will help to carry out its program of finer womanhood. The organization is composed of all young women attending Shaw University. As one of its major activities each year, the Women's Personnel Council sponsors an "Open House Visitation." This we feel is a good opportunity for the young women and men to exchange ideas on arranging their dormitory living quarters. President: Miss Jean Horne; Advisor: Dean Carrie Harrison.

I N T E R N A T I O N A L C L U B

The Bear Staff is happy to feature an addition to our family of organizations. The main purpose of this club is to promote an atmosphere of welcome for our international students as they exchange ideas about their countries. The club is composed of international students and other interested students. President: Mr. Charles Earle, Jamacia, British West Indies; Adviser: Mr. Carl DeVane.

D A N C E G R O U P

When it comes to originality in dancing, we at Shaw believe that our Dance Group is one of the best to be found anywhere in America. Here we see them in an evening of entertainment. Their basic aim is to create new dance steps, and to instill within the student body a deeper appreciation for all types of dances. President: Miss Marie Bond; Adviser: Mr. William Spann.

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

The Baptist Student Union provides recreation, relaxation, and religious guidance for the entire Shaw community: the student body, faculty, and staff. The members of this organization have as one of its major activities a trip to the American Baptist Convention in Greenlake, Wisconsin to discuss with other college students matters of interest on their college campuses. President: Miss Lacy Speight; Adviser: Miss Mildred McTyre.

STUDENT CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

The Student Christian Association is an affiliation of the Y.M.C.A. and the Y.W.C.A. The purpose of the organization is to provide for all members of the academic community to know Christ and each other through faith and practices of the Christian Church. President: Charles Earle; Adviser: Dr. Moses N. DeLaney.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Each Sunday morning the students at Shaw gather in the University Church to give expression of their faith in God. Here at Shaw students acquire an education steeped in Christian faith and tradition. President: Miss Ruby Pinchback; Adviser: Miss Mildred McTyre.

USHERS' UNION

The ushers pictured render zealously their services and time at church services and various activities on the campus. One of their basic aims is to assist in whatever way possible making our students comfortable. President: Louis Hall; Adviser: Dr. Moses DeLaney.

The Business Club is a new addition to the host of other clubs at Shaw. The basic purpose of the club is to acquaint its members with recent and changing trends in the business world. Advisors: Mrs. Lizzie Crews, Mr. James Kofa.

The Pestalozzi Chapter of the Student National Educational Association of Shaw University has given much guidance and preparation to those who have chosen teaching as their vocation. The major aim of this professional organization is to acquaint the prospective teacher of his duties in developing good citizens for our democratic society. President: Mr. Robert Morman; Adviser: Mrs. Clara Jenkins.

J U N I O R C O U N S E L O R S

Thanks to the junior counselors our freshmen do not have to walk around the campus looking aimlessly. An outstanding feature of our counseling system is its availability to our freshmen. In many instances our counselors are not able to give direct answers to questions that might arise but they at least know where to direct the student for further information. President: Mr. Louis Hall; Adviser: Dr. Marguerite Adams.

S H A W J O U R N A L

The University Newspaper, The Shaw Journal, provides for our students excellent journalistic experience. It keeps us informed on campus events and presents students' views on various issues that concern not only our college community but college communities in general. Editor: Miss Cynthia Williams; Advisors: Miss Madelyn Watson, Dean Foster Payne.

H O M E E C O N O M I C S C L U B

The purpose of the Home Economics Club are: To acquaint the students with the recent trends in Home Economics; to promote finer womanhood; to serve as a medium through which there will be an exchange of opinions and concepts between the students and instructors; to promote Scholastic achievement, and to promote better student relationships. President: Effie Harbison; Advisor: Mrs. Harveleigh White.

THE BIOLOGY CLUB

The Biology Club's chief purpose is to keep its members abreast with the recent trends not only in biology but in all areas of science. The members of this club and the instructors exchange opinions and views involving recent findings in biology and its related sciences. President: Mr. Sherman Miles; Adviser: Mr. Herschel Irons.

MATHEMATICS CLUB

Adviser: Mrs. Virginia Newell

The Mathematics Club is composed of majors in mathematics and chemistry. Here we see them engaged in an evening of problem solving. One of their basic aims is the creating of an appreciation for and a keener insight into the field of mathematical knowledge. President: Mr. Leroy Waters.

E N G L I S H C L U B

This club is made up of students majoring in English who desire to extend their knowledge about the subject and its current problems. The English Club members discuss ways to improve the English usage on our campus.

This year the club and the department presented Shakespeare's A Mid-Summer Night's Dream, and Titan a movie featuring the works of Michaelangelo. President: Miss Ophelia Davis; Adviser: Miss Madelyn Watson.

P E D

The Physical Education Club is another new addition to the family of clubs on our campus. This club consists of majors in the field of physical education. They have as one of their basic aims the creating of a deeper appreciation of their chosen field. President: Mrs. Charles Davis; Adviser: Mr. William Spann.

SANTA COMES TO SHAW

Miss Shaw and Her Attendants

Homecoming, 1961, was an event that will stand out in the memories of all. Long hours were spent during the entire week building class floats, preparing for the parade, buying flowers for queens, and making sure that everything was set for the big day.

Dig that Freshman Class Float

The hush of an empty theater ... anguish of rehearsals ... casting ... grease paint ... lighting ... designing and redesigning of sets ... watching the sea of faces over the footlights on opening night ... and another one of Mr. Guilbert A. Dayley's productions has won its way into the hearts of the Shaw family.

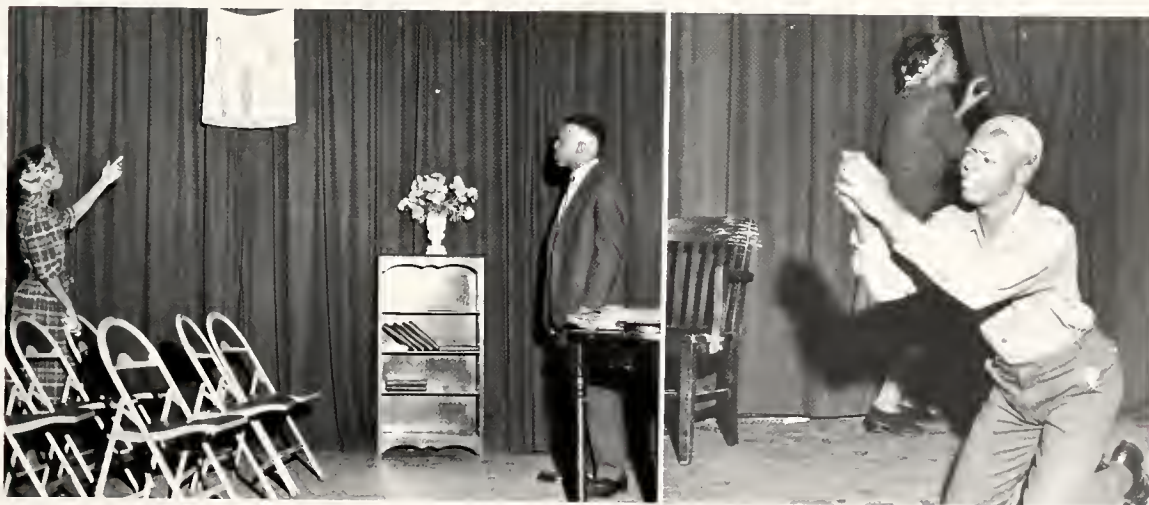

The members of the Dramatics Club have experienced a successful year as they presented a variety of plays which ran from The Monkey's Paw to its major production, The Silver Cord. Mr. Daley is the adviser to the Shaw Players.

CHEERLEADERS

Cynthia Williams

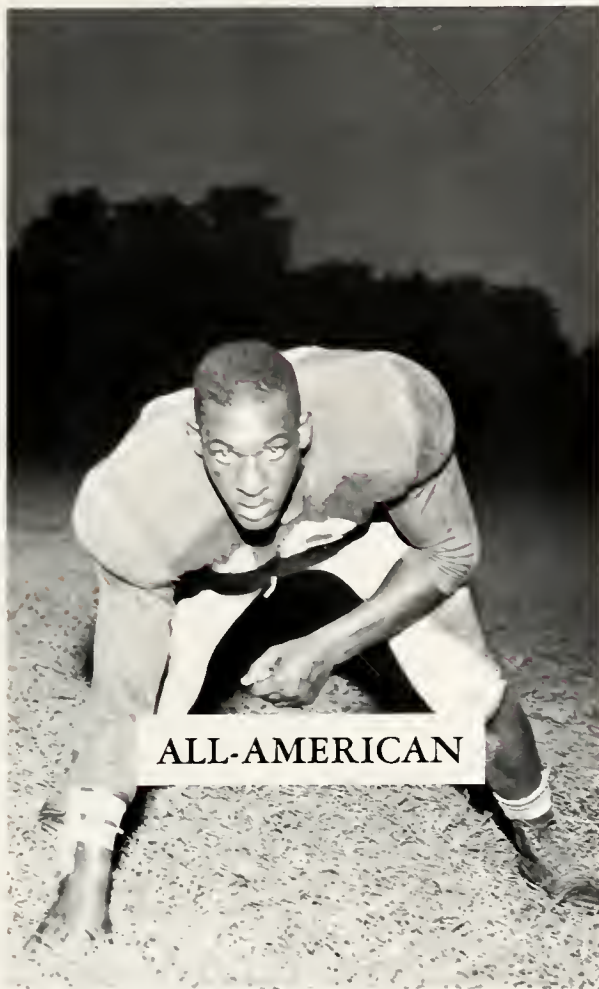

Normu Hardin

Cheerleaders boosted school spirit at every opportunity and backed the teams through victories and losses. They encouraged good sportsmanship at football, basketball, and baseball games. Their tasks were many ... decorating goal posts ... gathering good attendance ... new and novel yells ... supporting the team at all times and urging, "All the way, big team, all the way" ... and lending a helping hand to our rough and ready players. Can't you just hear our cheerleaders singing "We Are The Shaw Bears"? Reading from left to right we see: Matrye, Joyce, Gloria, JoAnn, and Josephine.

"OUR FOOTBALL CAPTAINS"

OTIS CLARK, Captain

Otis Clark, 6 feet 215 pound leader of the Shaw Bears, was unanimously voted to the All-CIAA Mythical 11. Also as linebacker he achieved all-American honors. Clark has excelled far above other great Bears of the last 13 years. He is gifted with undying love for the game, which when matched with his outstanding ability produces the finest linebacker in the country.

HAYZEL ROBINSON, Co-Captain

Hayzel Robinson, the Bear's tireless right guard, ranks second to Clark in actual playing time. "Robbie" broke into the Bears' starting lineup as a Sophomore along with Clark to give the Bears a fearsome interior line. The team feels that our right guard, Hayzel, has all the makings of an All-American.

McDowell — (Kicker)

Hinton — (Tackle)

McCory — (QB)

Our Bears Stood Majestically Against an Array of Opponents:

Maryland vs Shaw

Our Bears, led by the bone-crushing tackling of Otis Clark, fought Maryland State to a stand still before bowing on mistakes, 40—15.

Shaw vs. J. C. Smith

In Homecoming against J. C. Smith's Golden Bulls, our relentless Bears broke the previously unscored-on record of the Bulls and played flawlessly on defenses only to come out short, 12—9.

Shaw vs. Elizabeth City

Against fighting the Elizabeth City State Pirates, our Bears drew cheers from thousands by storming from behind (6—0) to claw the Pirates 20—6. Freshmen Robert Tinnin and Andrew Martin performed tremendously behind Q.B. Bob McCory.

Thanksgiving Classic

With all the color and excitement to be imagined, our Bears fought gloriously but committed one mistake; outcome — Bears, 0 — St. Augustine, 6.
